Residential on 26.00 Acres

UNKNOWN, HARTFIELD, VA

Wilton is a beautifully preserved & expertly restored historic property that appears today much as it did when Patriot William Churchill, II had this elegant manor home built in 1763. Encompassing approximately 26 acres with views of the Piankatank River, near present day Hartfield, this property consists of a 4,040 sq ft main house, 19th-century restored log cabin & an original two-room dependency dating to the 1840's. A scenic meandering driveway, parklike setting & beautifully landscaped grounds set the tone for all that awaits inside. Quite possibly the best-preserved privately-owned pre-revolutionary home remaining in Virginia, Wilton is the perfect marriage of a fully intact colonial era home with the modern amenities, updates & conveniences that are so sought after today. Having undergone a thorough but sensitive restoration, the historic integrity of Wilton remains & sets it apart as a property without equal in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The original historic fabric, workmanship & ambiance of ages past still live at Wilton! Conveniently located with easy access to Mathews, Gloucester, Urbanna, Deltaville, Irvington, Kilmarnock & the greater Northern Neck.
