BATTERY KEMBLE PLACE, WASHINGTON, DC

Tucked away in the distinguished enclave of Battery Kemble Place, once part of the estate of former New York Governor and U.S. Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, this elegant home blends classic style with modern comfort.

A dramatic foyer with lofty ceilings sets the stage upon entry, offering a grand welcome and effortless flow into the home's many inviting spaces. The formal living room features high ceilings, a wood-burning fireplace, and a Juliet balcony. Across the hall, the formal dining room mirrors these details and connects seamlessly to the butler's pantry and well-appointed chef's kitchen. Outfitted with classic white cabinetry, granite countertops, and an island with seating, the kitchen opens to a bright breakfast area and an expansive family room with built-in cabinetry and a gas fireplace. From here, step onto the generous two-level deck, complete with pergola and mechanized awning, surrounded by mature trees that create a serene and private outdoor retreat.

Upstairs, the sun-filled primary suite offers a peaceful escape, with dual walk-in closets and a luxurious en-suite bath featuring dual vanities, a soaking tub, walk-in shower, and private water closet. Three additional bedrooms provide ample comfort, one with an en-suite bath, and two sharing a spacious bath.

The finished lower level offers versatility with a private guest suite and full bath, laundry area, and a spacious recreation room with French doors that open to a flagstone patio. This level also provides access to the attached two-car garage.

The home’s refined character is matched by the charm and privacy of Battery Kemble Place, a community known for its tranquility, elegance, and understated prestige.
