Bright and inviting junior one-bedroom condo in the historic General Scott building, ideally located between Dupont Circle and Logan Circle — just five blocks north of the White House. This 8th-floor unit offers southwest-facing views of Scott Circle and features classic parquet wood floors, a defined sleeping area with a glass wall separator and French doors, and a smart, space-efficient layout. The unit includes three generously sized closets — two of them walk-in — including one off the living room near the bathroom, offering excellent storage. A light-filled bathroom and open living area complete the thoughtfully designed interior. The building features a 24-hour front desk, a landscaped green roof deck with sweeping city views, and condo fees that include heat, A/C, water, and more (electricity excluded).
