5 Bedroom, 5.50 Bathroom, 5,312 sqft

Residential on 0.18 Acres

BERKLEY, WASHINGTON, DC

Exceptional value! Tucked away at the end of the exclusive Foxhall Crescents enclave—on the historic site of the former Rockefeller Estate—this elegant 5-bedroom, 5.5-bath residence, with 5,832 sq.ft. of living space was custom-designed by renowned DC architect Arthur Cotton Moore. Built in 1984 and lovingly maintained by the original owner, the home features Moore's signature pale brick faade and a striking Palladian window that floods the two-story entry hall with natural light. Inside, marble floors and a grand staircase set the tone for gracious living. Just off the main entry, a hallway connects to the kitchen and includes a powder room and coat closet for added convenience. The open kitchen and family room were thoughtfully redesigned with refined custom cabinetry, a large island, and top-tier appliances including a Sub-Zero wine fridge, refrigerator drawers, freezer drawers, and a full-size Thermador refrigerator/freezer—ideal for entertaining. Formal living and dining rooms span the back of the home, where a wood-burning fireplace, custom built-ins, and French doors open to a large flagstone patio overlooking the garden and pool. The dining room comfortably seats 14, with a wall of casement windows framing the serene outdoor setting. Upstairs, the primary suite features a spacious bedroom, marble bath with soaking tub and separate shower, and two walk-in closets. Two additional en-suite bedrooms complete the upper level.

The light-filled walkout lower level includes a large recreation room with built-ins, wood-burning fireplace, and French doors leading directly to the pool and lower patio. Two additional bedrooms, two full baths, and a generous laundry room offer flexible living and guest space. Located minutes from Georgetown, Downtown DC, Chain Bridge, and major commuter routes, 4616 Foxhall Crescents is a rare offering combining privacy, architectural pedigree, and timeless design.
