Welcome to 2410 21st PI NE, a charming Cape Cod that sits proudly on its own private corner lot. This home excels in warmth, modern updates, and energy efficiency, creating a space that feels both effortlessly stylish and grounded for everyday living.

From sunrise to sunset, the home's east-west facing windows bathe the rooms in natural light. Inside, hardwood floors flow across first and second levels, complemented by tile in the kitchen and baths for easy upkeep. The cozy living room invites you to gather around the wood-burning fireplace (refreshed with a new liner and stack in 2019) while recessed lighting adds a modern touch throughout the main and lower levels.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen with quartz countertops, custom cabinetry, and modern appliances opens to a dining room with ample space for lively dinner parties. A practical mudroom and laundry area connects directly to the backyard and also to a private in-law suite with ensuite bath. This versatile space has served as both a comfortable guest suite and a successful short-term rental, making it perfect for friends, family, or passive income.

The upstairs features two generously sized bedrooms with tons of natural light, and a fully renovated bathroom featuring a soaking tub and sleek, modern tile. The finished lower level creates a welcoming retreat with its primary suite—complete with a fully updated spa-like bathroom, two large closets, and a cozy sitting area. In all, the home offers 4 bedrooms and 3 full bathrooms - tons of space for everyone!

Recent updates ensure comfort and savings, including spray foam insulation (2022) and solar panels (2020), which not only lower bills but also generate nearly $4,000 annually through Solar Renewable Energy Credits (SRECs).

Step outside to discover a large, private backyard oasis. Enclosed by a 2020 privacy fence, it features more than 400 sq. ft. of entertainment space, a paver patio, gazebo, raised garden beds, and a storage shed. West facing for spectacular sunsets, it's the perfect setting for barbecues, gardening, or simply relaxing with guests.

A driveway and separate parking area accommodate two or more vehicles, offering convenient off-street parking so you will never have to fight for street parking.

Freshly painted inside and out in 2024, this home is truly move-in ready.
