Elegant Victorian Row House with Parking,
Two Kitchens & Prime DC Location

Welcome to this charming 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath Victorian row house nestled on a beautiful tree-lined street in one of Washington, DC's vibrant and walkable neighborhoods. Full of historic character and old-world charm, this home boasts four decorative (non-working) fireplaces, exposed brick, and original architectural details throughout.

The home features a versatile layout, including a den, two full kitchens, and two separate entrances—ideal for multigenerational living or private guest accommodations. Whether you're cooking a meal, working from the sunny deck, or relaxing in the formal living room, every space feels welcoming and warm.

Additional highlights include:

Dedicated off-street parking space

Partially furnished interiors for a move-in-ready experience

Close proximity to two Metro stations, cafes, restaurants, parks, shops, and everything you need for easy urban living

This is a rare opportunity to rent a distinctive piece of DC history that offers both character and functionality in an unbeatable location.
