STANTON PARK, WASHINGTON, DC

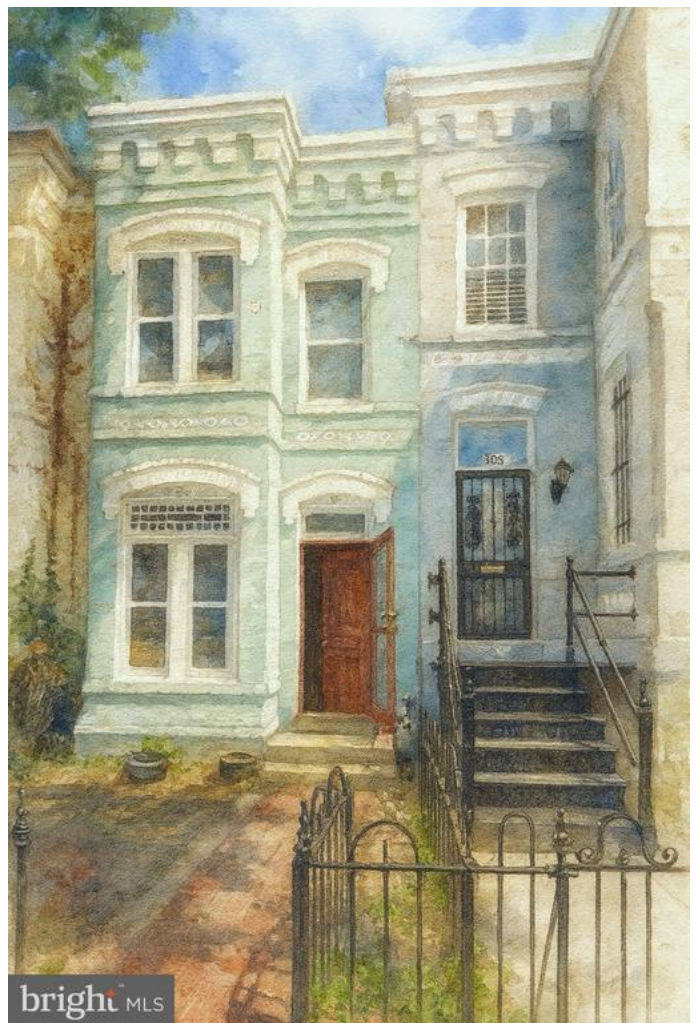

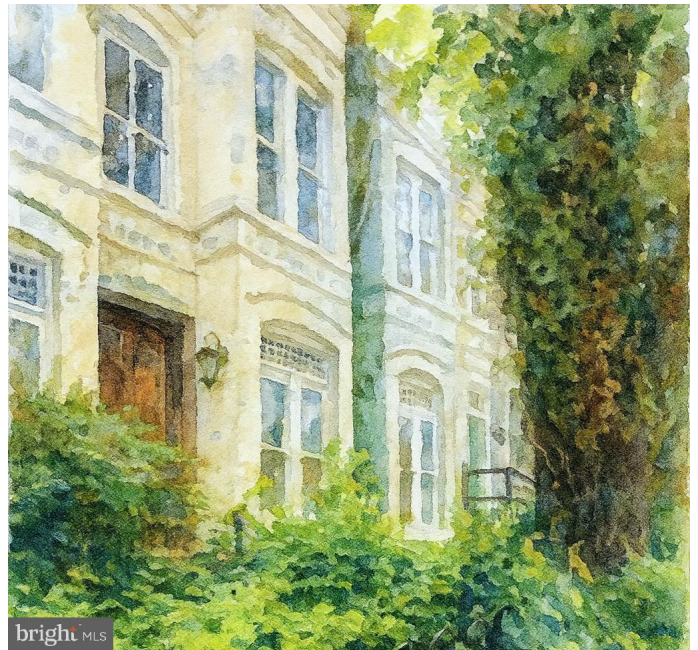

The aroma of fresh coffee fills the brick patio and a gentle morning breeze fills your imagination with leaves rustling, church bells echoing faintly in the distance, and the golden light of morning dances over the brick facades of Capitol Hill's most storied streets.

Just two blocks from the U.S. Capitol and moments from Stanton Park, this residence sits in the heart of one of Washington's most iconic neighborhoods where history isn't just preserved, it's lived. Take a peaceful stroll beneath the canopy of century-old trees, admire the timeless architecture, and feel the hum of civic life all around you. Here, every corner tells a story of politics, culture, and place.

After work, unwind on your back patio with a glass of wine as the city lights shimmer through the trees, or wander to a nearby café for an espresso before catching an evening train from Union Station. Philadelphia and New York are just a quick ride away.

And on crisp autumn mornings, as the scent of fallen leaves mingles with the aroma of fresh pastries from the corner bakery, you'll realize this isn't just a home it's your front-row seat to history, nestled in the heart of Capitol Hill.
