ANCHORS RUN, LEWES, DE

Welcome to Anchor Run, a beautiful community in Lewes, Delaware, thoughtfully designed with green space in mind. The neighborhood features spring-fed ponds and a full irrigation system with no water costs to the owner. With low Home Owner fees. This particular home is a Bramante model, over 2,000 sq ft, just two years old, and it's filled with beautiful decorative touches, a full professional landscape package, upgraded lighting, and an impressive hardscape patio complete with a fireplace with wood storage, built-in grill, and refrigerator. Patio has been fully prepared for a future outdoor pavillion. The first guest bedroom and full bath are privately located away from the main living space and primary suite, offering your guests comfort and privacy. Directly ahead, you'll find a flex room, currently used as a home office, which could easily serve as a second guest bedroom if needed. The great room and open floor with gas fireplace offers open space floor plan. A well-appointed kitchen and breakfast area overlook the great room, which features a fireplace, soaring 10-foot ceilings with crown molding, and beautiful engineered flooring throughout.

The primary suite is tucked privately behind the great room and offers dual vanities with separate sinks, a walk-in closet, and an oversized shower. The laundry room is conveniently located just outside the primary suite for easy access from all areas of the home.

Don't miss the sliding glass doors off the breakfast room that lead to a covered rear porch, perfect for enjoying morning coffee or evening drinks. The staircase to the second floor is located just off the center hallway, which also features a mudroom, access to the two-car garage, and two additional closets. Upstairs, you'll find a loft area currently used as a sitting area and second office space. This floor also includes a guest bedroom with a full bath and walk-in closet, along with an additional large room for storage.

You'll find lovely views at every turn, along with a walkway arboretum featuring outdoor benches perfect for relaxing and watching the wildlife. The clubhouse, outdoor pool, and the future pickleball courts are just a few of the amenities you'll come to love and enjoy here. With low Home Owner fees. This home is perfect for bringing together family and friends, just 6 miles from Lewes Beach, 8 miles from Cape Henlopen State Park, and 7 miles from downtown Lewes Canal. Enjoy the restaurants, ocean views, and everything Lewes, Delaware has to offer
