BROADVIEW ESTATES, ANNAPOLIS, MD

Welcome to this captivating “Country Cape” reproduction, inspired by an original 1754 home in New Milford, Connecticut. Nestled in the prestigious waterfront community of Broadview Estates in Annapolis, this exceptional property offers both historical charm and modern-day elegance. Crafted with intention and care, the home features hand-built cabinetry in the kitchen and wet bar—designed and constructed by the owner—as well as artisan-crafted interior doors and rich wood-beamed ceilings that lend warmth and character throughout. The main living areas flow seamlessly from kitchen to dining to living room, opening effortlessly onto a private brick patio and professionally designed gardens—a serene extension of the home that invites year-round enjoyment. Outdoors, the grounds are a true masterpiece. Curated by a Master Gardener, the landscape has earned its place in the Maryland Garden Tours and Home of the Week features. From morning coffee among the blooms to evening chats on the inviting front porch, this property is designed for peaceful, refined living. The cozy living room, anchored by a classic wood-burning fireplace, is perfect for intimate gatherings or quiet nights in. A spacious eat-in kitchen offers the ideal setting for entertaining, while a dedicated office on the main level provides flexibility as a work-from-home space or additional bedroom. Upstairs, the primary suite is a restful retreat with an en-suite bath. Two additional bedrooms—one with a charming skylight overlooking the gardens—offer comfort for guests or family.

A 12' x 25' boat slip is available for lease in Broadview's private marina conveys with the property, providing easy access to the Chesapeake Bay lifestyle. Additional features include a two-car garage, workshop, garden shed, and ample storage. This is more than a home—it's a lifestyle. Classic architecture, artisan details, and breathtaking gardens make this a rare offering in one of Annapolis' most desirable neighborhoods. The property is being sold "as is".
