This three-story, 4-bedroom home is ready for its next chapter. Bursting with potential and full of character, the property offers a rare opportunity to renovate while you live in it. Though it needs some TLC, its solid bones and original charm make it a worthwhile investment.

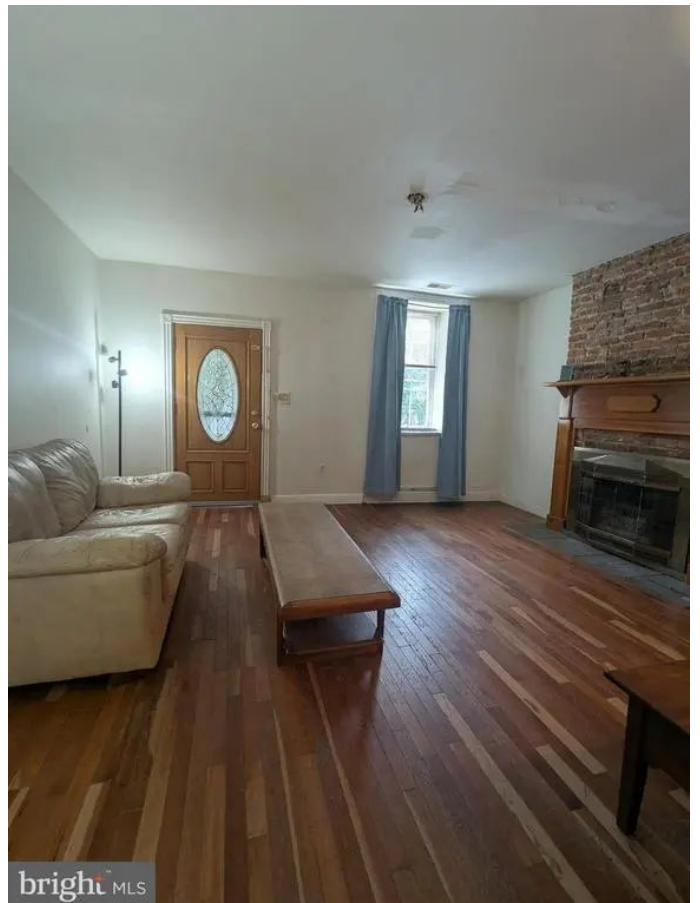

Once home to four fireplaces (only one remains open), the house echoes its historic roots. The fully fenced yard is spacious and ideal for outdoor enjoyment or future landscaping dreams. Located on Mill Race Road, these homes were originally built for the foremen of the nearby Clipper Mill—where the famed Clipper ships sales were produced.
