"Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication" -- Leonard da Vinci. Undoubtedly one of the finest examples of Mid-Century Modern architecture. This sleek property artistically combines two units, providing over 2,700 square feet.....with walls of windows facing east, west and north. Designed by world renowned architect Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, whose philosophy is characterized by minimalism and a feeling of open space....famously summarized by his maxim "less is more." Unit 502 offers two main living areas, one of which is currently being used as a studio, an expansive dining corridor, four bedrooms.....including primary and guest en suites, and countless closets and storage.....rare for properties of this era. Meticulously cared for and maintained, as though its doors were just being opened for the first time after its construction in 1964. LIVE IN ART!
