Residential on 0.41 Acres

MOUNT WASHINGTON, BALTIMORE, MD

Step back into 1957—when design was daring, entertaining was an art, and homes like this were built to wow. Perched high on “Pill Hill,” this Mid-Century Modern stunner is one of just five originals and still shines with all the details we love: a cool slate entry, a floating teak buffet, custom built-ins, and a dramatic stacked-stone fireplace now updated with gas.

The kitchen is a host’s dream—custom cabinetry matched to the original woodwork, plus a clever moveable island that tucks away or rolls out when the party heats up. The dining room’s picture window serves up nightly sunsets along with wooded views you’ll never want to cover with curtains.

Four bedrooms on the main level—including a primary suite with ensuite bath—make this as functional as it is fabulous. Add in a four-season room for year-round indoor-outdoor living, and a walk-out lower level with wall-to-wall glass, a wine storage room, two-car garage with EV charging, and bonus flex space, and you’ve got the perfect mix of vintage soul and modern convenience.

This is more than a house—it’s a statement. Sleek, stylish, and ready for its next chapter.

Built in 1957
