Residential on 0.15 Acres

GRACELAND ESTATES, BALTIMORE, MD

If this all-brick ranch home could talk, it would tell the story of more than 55 years of family milestones—birthdays celebrated, holidays filled with scratch-made meals, and everyday moments cherished in the warmth of a home built on tradition and pride.

From the moment you step inside, you™ll understand why. Single-level living makes life easy here. The spacious living room, with its warm hardwood floors, opens to a separate dining room. Just beyond, the well-loved kitchen is perfectly placed for serving and entertaining.

All three bedrooms rest on this main level, each with sizable closets and hardwood floors that have stood the test of time. Bedroom #3 holds a little secret—a walk-up to a fully floored attic, an easily accessible space that has stored decades of holiday decorations, photo albums, and keepsakes waiting for new memories to join them.

The fully finished lower level extends the home™s versatility with a cozy family room anchored by a wood stove, a recreation area designed for game nights and celebrations, and a large utility room with the potential for a secondary kitchen—continuing the tradition of cooking for a crowd or preparing for special occasions.

Outside, a large flat yard stands ready for autumn nights around a fire pit with friends. Off-street parking and updated windows speak to the care poured into this home by an owner who believed in doing things the right way”and keeping them that way.

This isn’t just a listing. It’s the next chapter of a story that began decades ago. And now, this home is ready”patiently waiting for someone new to carry on the traditions and create their own milestones.
