Back on Market

Sometimes life changes direction â€” the previous buyer got cold feet, which means this beautiful home is available again! Their loss could be your gain. Donâ€™t miss your second chance to make it yours!

Come on down the driveway, pass the garden and chicken coop, and drive up to this wonderful split-level home. On an almost 5 acre lot with mature foliage (including figs, strawberries, blueberries, and kiwi vines) with a serene koi pond in the back, this home is nestled in a peaceful cocoon away from the busy world.

Enter the split-foyer and choose your own adventure: check out the full basement with tons of possibilities and bonus room for guests to stay in OR go upstairs and check out the open floor plan with great sight lines through the eat-in kitchen and living room. With all the bedrooms on one level, no need to go up and down the stairs all the time. There are even two primary bedroom/bathrooms. This home is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered and made to shine.

As if the house and property weren't enough, there are outbuildings that make the property even more desirable. There's a detached 3-car port, a two car detached garage with a side entrance and enough room to make an office in, and a huge RV/boat garage that has doors on both ends. If you have many vehicles, construction equipment, or are someone with boats or a RV- this is the place for you. No more paying to store your vehicles.

Come check this property out. You won't want to wonder what-if.

Built in 1980
