Residential on 0.24 Acres

HISTORIC DISTRICT - WEST END,
CAMBRIDGE, MD

Experience the best of the Eastern Shore in this beautifully preserved 1918 home, ideally located in Cambridge's Historic West End District along the Choptank River. Enjoy walkable access to downtown, the Yacht Club, two waterfront parks, and nearby boat ramps—truly a lifestyle rooted in history, nature, and community.

Take in spectacular sunrises and vibrant views of sailing events and waterfront races like Eagleman and Ironman—all from your expansive screened wraparound porch. Inside, you'll find over 2,100 sq ft of timeless character blended with modern comforts. Original wood floors, pocket doors, and classic woodwork pair beautifully with panoramic water views from nearly every room. The spacious foyer leads into a cozy living room and a formal dining area that opens to the enclosed porch—perfect for entertaining year-round, complete with sliding glass doors and electric heating. The bright kitchen features white cabinetry, custom built-ins, and a central island peninsula that flows into the sunlit River Room—an ideal spot to relax and take in the ever-changing river views, from skipjacks to osprey.

Upstairs, the primary suite includes dual vanities, a walk-in shower, and ample closet space, along with a flexible bonus room—great for an office, extra guest space, or private retreat. A second bedroom also offers stunning water views and a private bath. A walk-up attic adds even more potential. Outside, enjoy over 120 feet of protected waterfront, a double-sided dock that can accommodate a 37-foot boat, and a detached garage with storage and workshop space. Off-street parking rounds out the conveniences of this rare waterfront gem. Donâ€™t miss the chance to own a piece of Cambridgeâ€™s rich waterfront historyâ€”schedule your showing today.
