HARFORD HILLS, FALLSTON, MD

Live authentically. Located in Maryland's rolling Elkridge - Harford equestrian countryside, Harford Hill emerges as a beacon of historic Georgian architectural splendor on 246.75 acres. It is the jewel of My Lady's Manor. Commissioned in 1929 as the grand vision of S. Bryce Wing, a revered figure in the equestrian world and esteemed former President of the National Steeplechase Association, Arrive at the gates and enter Harford Hill along a dramatic and mature tree-lined drive, a prelude to the extraordinary experience that awaits within. Step into the main estate with over 12,000sf. The interiors were designed by acclaimed Steven Gambrel, Principal of SRG - New York. Marvel at the soaring ceilings, spacious rooms, light and volume, while a masterfully designed winding staircase off the entry hall delivers one to the upper floors. The property has many restored outbuildings including an incredible party barn with over 5,000sf. Within its 5,438sf, guests are invited to revel in an atmosphere of conviviality and warmth, while a dramatic staircase unveiling another level with stonewalled, light-filled space, offering a myriad of possibilities for unforgettable gatherings. Harford Hill has three horse barns with a total of 27 stalls. Further enhancing its appeal are ancillary structures including a four bedroom Guest House, Two bedroom staff apartment, Manager's home (the Pocock House), a six car garage, corn crib,largeequipment/tractorand hay storagebarn, new all-weather arena 150x200and multiple run-in sheds, catering to every conceivable need with grace and functionality. There is also aTennis courtwith amazing viewsand poolat the Main House. Amidst this verdant oasis stands a specimen copper beech tree, a veritable work of art unto itself. Its august presence serves as a stunning backdrop in all seasons, casting an enchanting spell over the landscape and providing an exquisite canvas from which to live a life of unparalleled beauty and grace. The privacy afforded by the thoughtful positioning of the improvements and countryside views are to be seen. Cultivate your existence. The art of uniting human and home.
