TAKOMA PARK, TAKOMA PARK, MD

Lovely, lovely Art & Crafts colonial on a quiet cul-de-sac in popular North Takoma Historic District. It is rare to find a small cul-de-sac in Takoma Park, especially one that sits on a bluff with sunrise views. Built in 1928, this home features all the charm of the era, with modern updates. A white picket fence welcomes you to the ample front porch with original porch swing. Enter the living room with sunlight streaming in through a wall of windows, and a raised hearth for the vintage fireplace. A separate dining room with bay windows and plantation shutters leads you to the updated kitchen with subway tile backsplash, black granite counters, and brand new stove. A sunny rear addition breakfast room and family room overlooks the deck and expansive rear yard. The other side of the main floor features a bedroom or office and full bath. A circular flow creates a very livable floorplan. Up the stairs, which are luxuriously wide, the second level features 3 spacious bedrooms and two full baths. The owners suite is a magical room with vaulted ceiling, views of trees and skylights. An updated owners bath with new double sink vanity and vintage basketweave floor tile is ensuite. The basement is unfinished and dry for laundry and storage. Driveway with carport and outside storage area. Very deep back lot is fenced. You are just 3 blocks to metro and a short stroll to Old Town Takoma shops, restaurants, and farmers market. Enjoy the quiet of this small street and the convenient proximity to all good things Takoma!
