GREENWICH FOREST, BETHESDA, MD

Every now and then, a house comes along where the layout simply works and the location makes every day feel easy. This classic brick Colonial in Greenwich Forest features four bedrooms up, dramatic family room addition, and a fully fenced backyard framed by mature azaleas and hydrangeas.

A flagstone walkway and manicured front lawn is adorned with a gas lantern and a covered front entry that sets a timeless tone. Inside, a center-hall entrance opens to the formal dining room and a spacious living room anchored by a cozy fireplace, complete with built-ins for display and storage, and access to a charming side screened porch.

The large eat-in kitchen offers ample cabinet storage, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a sun-drenched breakfast area with direct access to the back deck -- perfect for easy everyday living and effortless entertaining. (The owners have comfortably hosted gatherings of more than one hundred guests here!) The kitchen also includes built-ins for additional storage and display, while the adjacent family room features 10+ foot ceilings and walls of oversized windows that fill the space with natural light.

Upstairs are four real bedrooms making this an ideal Bethesda floorplan. The primary suite is light-filled with loads of windows, a large walk-in closet, along with a newly-renovated primary bath featuring double vanity with marble countertop, soaking tub, separate shower, and a spa-like vibe. Three other bedrooms with hardwood floors, roomy closets, and new light fixtures, along with a remodeled hall bath with marble vanity and white subway tile evoke a classic aesthetic.

Need even more space? A floored attic, accessed by dedicated staircase, provides excellent storage or future finishing potential. And in the freshly finished lower level you'll find laundry, a finished rec room, quarter-bath, storage room, and a private entrance.

With its gracious layout for entertaining, prime Greenwich Forest setting, and proximity to downtown Bethesda, Metro, shops, and restaurants, 5621 Huntington Parkway delivers both charm and convenience in one of Bethesda's most beloved neighborhoods. Bradly Hills, Pyle, Whitman schools serves the neighborhood. SQFT estimated by third party and should not be used for valuation. Reliable but not guaranteed.
