KNOLLWOOD, HYATTSVILLE, MD

Welcome home to this charmingly updated Cape Cod, nestled in a lush, garden oasis. The main entrance is framed by a charming portico that was built in 2022. Inside, refinished hardwood floors (2019) lead through a warm and inviting living room anchored by a wall of picture windows (replaced 2025) overlooking the backyard garden, and a wood burning fireplace. A patio door leads to one of the newly renovated outdoor composite decks where you can sit and enjoy the serenity of your expansive outdoor space. The kitchen is a standout, featuring granite countertops, stylish backsplash and built in shelving. A thoughtful pass-through window connects the kitchen to the living room, balancing function with flow. Beyond the kitchen, a hall leads to a remodeled hall bathroom (2024) with all new tiles, tub, vanity, toilet and fixtures. It combines modern touches with functionality with built-in shelves for added storage. Further down the hall you will find two spacious bedrooms with ample closet space and windows that let in natural light. Heading upstairs, there are two additional bedrooms and another fully renovated full bath. The primary bedroom features recessed lighting, sloped ceilings, original wood paneling and built-ins creating a warm and inviting retreat with timeless charm. The second bedroom is enhanced with luxury vinyl floors (2020) and also features sloped ceilings that add architectural character and give a storybook feel to the space. The bathroom was recently remodeled (2025) with new wall and floor tiles, tub, sink, toilet, window and all new fixtures. The classic black and white palette with sleek black hexagon tiles creates a chic, boutique feel to this upgraded bathroom. A partially finished basement offers a versatile bonus area - ideal for a rec room, home office or workout space - with additional unfinished space perfect for storage, a workshop area or future expansion. The outdoor space truly shines with multiple decks that lead to a secluded backyard with mature trees and layered plants to create your own private retreat. Both side and back decks were redone in 2022 with new composite Trex planks and new railings for low maintenance upkeep. A lot of hard work was lovingly poured into the backyard, making it the oasis it is today by clearing out much of the overgrown vegetation and leveling out the yard. Other upgrades include new washer/dryer (2019), new stove hood (2019), new chimney cap (2020), and new garbage disposal (2024). Conveniently located close to public transportation, I-95 and I-495, as well as restaurants, shops and the University of Maryland, this home won't last long!
