Ready to buy your first home?

This charming 3-bedroom, 1-bath home in Landover could be the perfect place to start your journey. It offers just the right mix of move-in-ready features and room to make it your own.

The fenced front yard gives you a bit of green space to enjoy right away, while the spacious backyard is ideal for weekend BBQs, gardening, or future upgrades like a patio or play area. Inside, you'll find a simple, functional layout with a cozy living room, three comfortable bedrooms, and a kitchen that opens directly to the backyard—great for entertaining or keeping an eye on pets or kids.

The home already includes thoughtful touches like wood-look flooring and neutral paint, giving you a clean, welcoming space to move into—and a blank slate for updates down the road as your style and budget allow.

As a first-time buyer, you'll also love the convenient location. You're close to local schools, shopping, and dining along Landover Road, plus just minutes from I-495 and Route 50—making it easy to commute into D.C. or explore nearby Maryland neighborhoods.

If you're dreaming of homeownership and looking for a place where you can build equity, add value over time, and truly make it your own—this Landover home is a smart and exciting first step.
