NONE AVAILABLE, CENTREVILLE, MD

A true legacy property, Corsica Point Lane is an offering unlike any other. Situated on the Corsica River on Maryland's Eastern Shore, the estate boasts 1200 feet of shoreline, deep water pier with boat lift and spans 14.7 acres. It serves as a serene contrast to urban living, with open expanses, permeated only by the gentle sounds of the river and surrounding wildlife. A long, meandering driveway winds through the open field past the barn and guest house to the stately brick home and pool house. Upon entry the attention to detail, beautiful woodwork and impressive 2 story Living room is only surpassed by the water views framed by the oversized windows and doors leading out to the brick patio. The patio provides the perfect place to relax and soak in the surroundings or head over to the pool house and pool for a refreshing dip. The pool house boasts a full kitchen, half bath and covered loggia to escape the sun. The ultimate setup for easy entertaining and enjoying the waterfront lifestyle. Inside the main home, the gourmet Kitchen is a marvel of craftsmanship, beautifully constructed with old world charm but filled with modern conveniences including a fully equipped butler's pantry. The adjacent formal dining room is spacious enough for gatherings large or small. Rounding out this level is the light filled sunroom with panoramic views overlooking the yard and the river, a distinguished home office and the Family room with wet bar, water views and access to rear patio and pool area. The homes layout effortlessly flows from formal to casual spaces making for easy everyday living or hosting extravagant parties! The picturesque views from every room continues with the 3 bedrooms on the upper level including 2 spacious primary ensuite bedrooms with water views. The lower level is an entertainer's dream featuring a rec room, wet bar, wine cellar, exercise room and tons of storage. The guest house with cathedral ceilings, spacious living room, full kitchen, dining room, screened porch and 3 bedrooms with 2 baths is ideal to comfortably house all the guest you are sure to host. The bucolic views of pastures, trees and the epic barn creates the perfect setting for this estate. The heated barn with 17' ceilings, 14' sliding doors and attic storage space provides endless options for multiple uses. Head out for a day on the water from the private pier, perfectly located on the Corsica River, allowing easy access to the Chester River and beyond. Welcome Home!
