Residential on 31.00 Acres

NONE AVAILABLE, QUEENSTOWN, MD

The Sally Harris Mill House was once part of the Bloomingdale Estate is one of the remaining 18th Century masterpieces on the Eastern Shore. This peaceful farmette boasts over 31 acres with a blend of open pasture and wooded seclusion. The property sits on the Western banks of Madam Alices Branch, a tributary of the Wye River. Mature evergreens line the entrance creating a dramatic feel and historic charm is displayed throughout the home with 5 fireplaces, Flemish bond brickwork, and a gambrel roof. Modern amenities have been incorporated with the 2 story North wing which was completed around 2000 to include a first floor primary suite with en suite bathroom, makeup room, and 2 separate walk-in closets on the first floor and 2nd floor family room. The updated kitchen, partially finished basement with kitchenette, and heated pool are also highlighted upgrades. Outdoor living is celebrated here with a screened in rear porch for dinners in nature, a front porch to sit and watch the wildlife, and pool deck for making memories. Bring your machines and toys because there is plenty of storage in the outbuildings. The 2 story machine shop has been impeccably maintained and is perfect for any type of project. The open pasture would be perfect for horses and though they haven't been maintained in a few years, the forest contains nature trails for disconnecting from the hustle and bustle or hunting opportunities. This is your chance to make a piece of Eastern Shore's history your own peaceful retreat.
