Welcome to this remarkable 3-story Victorian, once known as the Stone House Inn! This stately 19th-century residence earned its name from the impressive 14-inch stone walls that surround the home. Rich in character and history, it showcases beautifully preserved period details such as stained-glass windows, wainscoting, 11-foot ceilings, oak woodwork, intricate hardware, grand 9-foot pocket doors, carved oak mantles, and stunning hardwood floors.

Offering plenty of space, the home features 8 bedrooms, 6 full bathrooms, and 2 half baths—ideal for large families, multi-generational living, or potential rental opportunities. The walkout basement provides abundant storage space and easy access to the outdoors, while the working wood-burning fireplace adds warmth and charm.

Recent updates include modernized electrical wiring (no knob-and-tube) completed in the 2000s, a 3-year-old gas heater, and an 80-gallon water heater installed 5 years ago, and a slate roof that complements its timeless design.

Ample off-street parking is available, and up to 33% of the home may be utilized for commercial purposes, offering endless possibilities for business or mixed-use ventures.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a piece of local history with incredible potential for personal or income-generating use!
