8 Bedroom, 11.00 Bathroom,
Residential on 3.18 Acres

NONE AVAILABLE, LAWRENCEVILLE, NJ

Unparalleled spaciousness and complete privacy await on 3.18 fenced acres adjoining protected natural land and within easy reach of all the places you frequent most. The custom-built house, completed in 2016, is positively palatial with areas for every single member of the household to have their very own space, whether for work or rejuvenation. South-facing rooms spanning the back of the house open to a sweeping balcony that overlooks the irrigated lawn, ideal for tented parties. In fact, it has already been the site of a joyous wedding celebration! A sport court occupies one corner and a future pool is easy to envision. In addition to two separate garages, there is lots of room for parking along the gated driveway, which winds past a water feature and whimsical statuary before culminating at a covered entry of grand proportions. Inside, a butterfly staircase and custom marble medallions immediately impress in the 2-story foyer flanked by the formal rooms. The family room, ahead, has one of several gas fireplaces, as does the kitchen, where multiple cooks can fluidly work together thanks to a lengthy island, a full-size fridge and freezer, two dishwashers and two cooktops, plus a nearby wet bar. As seen in the reflective backsplash, warm amber and copper tones are woven throughout the home, repeated in glimmering light fixtures and tile accents. There are eight bedroom suites spread out across three levels, each one with a private bath dressed in natural stone and several with sitting rooms or offices adjoining. Upstairs, there are at least two suites worthy of being called the primary. Simply choose the amenity you value most: a steam shower, a curved bay of windows or a fireplace, just to name a few. All have Jacuzzi tubs and ample closet space. A two-room office with yet another handsome full bathroom also opens to the balcony for healthy breaks out in the fresh air. The walk-out lower level has two more luxuriously sized suites separated by lounge space and a full kitchen. A snack bar completes the home theater experience, making it even better than a night out! High ceilings, Andersen windows, a full-service elevator and radiant heat throughout show this house was built to the highest modern standards, while a generator ensures your comfort is never interrupted.
