Residential on 0.43 Acres

NONE AVAILABLE, NEW OXFORD, PA

Coming Soon! More info & professional photos to come.

This former B&B and current restored gem was originally built in 1888 by the prominent Himes family and designed by renowned architect John Augustus Dempwolf. Currently featuring a stunning 5 bedrooms, 4 full bathrooms and one powder room, this New Oxford beauty has been lovingly restored to its Art Deco roots. Mixed Use (TCMU) zoning allows for ample opportunities to make this your private residence or a multitude of business and/or commercial uses. The property also features a charming, detached garage/carriage house that is just waiting for its next owner's imagination! Showings begin 11/21.
