Residential on 2.12 Acres

NONE AVAILABLE, LIMEKILN, PA

Welcome to 1621 Limekiln Rd., located in the historic and bucolic Oley Valley of Berks County. A 4 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath Cape Cod style home with historic characteristics, but modern amenities. Features include a first floor primary bedroom with luxurious bath, walk-in closet, and wood-burning fireplace, gourmet kitchen, dining room/sitting room combination with fireplace, and a spacious great room with another fireplace. Yes, this home features three wood burning fireplaces. The upper level area includes three bedrooms and a full bath. Adjacent to the house are several outstanding exterior features. A large brick front patio for relaxation and observing sunsets over the surrounding meadows, a rear brick patio overlooking the lily pads in the Koi pond, and the piece de resistance is the timber-framed covered patio with kitchenette and ceiling fans. Garage space and storage should never be an issue with this home. Immediately adjacent to the house is a two-car detached garage with loft storage. Located on the opposite side of the two acre property is a bank barn style building which could accommodate two to three vehicles in the lower level while providing second level space for a shop, crafts, or additional storage. If you are seeking country living with style and accommodations, look no farther. Prior to any showings of 1621 Limekiln Rd., all agents representing buyers interested in this property must provide a pre-qualification letter from a legitimate lender for their client(s).
