NONE AVAILABLE, HAMBURG, PA

Welcome to a Rare Historic Treasure in Berks County. Tucked away at the end of a long private drive in Fleetwood Schools, this unique one-of-a-kind estate is rich in history and recognized as a Historic Site of Berks County. Set on two parcels totaling 34 picturesque acres, this stately four-bedroom brick two-story home offers timeless charm, architectural detail, and serene privacy. The main floor welcomes you with a gracious entry foyer that leads to a private office, formal living room, and spacious family room. The heart of the home is the large eat-in kitchen, blending modern convenience with historical flair, featuring updated appliances and original wood-burning oven. Additionally on the first floor is a sunroom, bonus room, and half bath, creating a versatile and inviting living space. Upstairs, you'll find four generous size bedrooms including one with access to an upstairs balcony, two full baths, and a convenient laundry room complete with washer, dryer, and sink. This exceptional home showcases countless historic and architectural details that include cut glass and decorative glass panels, carved wood archway, a widows walk on roof, high ceilings, pine hardwood floors, and abundant windows that bathe each room in natural light. You'll also find elegant crown molding, chair rail, specialty lighting fixtures, and multiple decorative fireplaces most adorned with marble mantelpieces. The unfinished basement offers ample storage, while a wrap-around porch invites you to relax and enjoy the stunning landscape. There is a carport with generous parking, and the property is enhanced by several outbuildings including two barns and a shed, nestled among mature trees and diverse landscaping. This is more than a home—it's an opportunity to own a true piece of Berks County history. Call today to schedule your private showing of this extraordinary property.
