Elevated “Colorado Contemporary”
Chalet with Endless Views

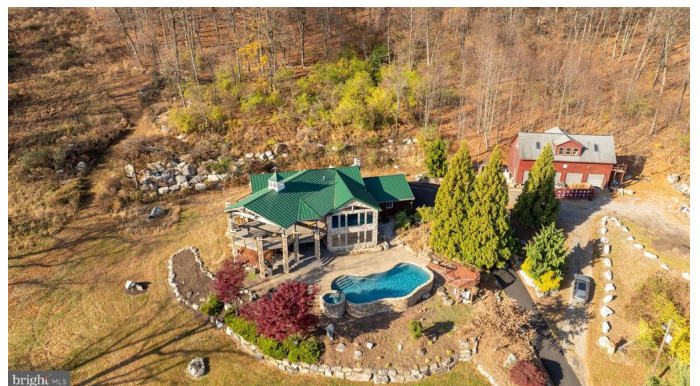

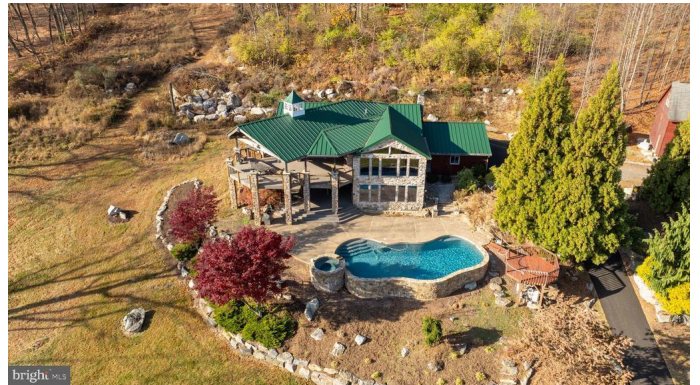

Perched above the treetops, this stunning stone-and-wood contemporary blends rustic design with modern comforts — offering dramatic architecture and thoughtfully designed outdoor spaces that feel straight out of the Rockies.

A home worthy of previous architectural magazine covers, your outdoor living is as elevated as the soaring views you take in from every angle. The two-tier deck is crowned by a cathedral ceiling with wood beams, accent lighting, cupola, and a floor-to-ceiling stone gas fireplace — perfect for year-round enjoyment.

Step down to the expansive lower patio, beautifully landscaped and anchored by an in-ground pool and hot tub, stone retaining wall, and a cozy viewing deck ideal for morning coffee or evening stargazing.

The main entry sets the tone immediately, where slate floors and a striking stone accent wall welcome you with the rustic elegance of a mountain lodge.

Head upstairs to the heart of the home to find an open-concept main living space designed to showcase panoramic views and natural textures at every turn. You™re greeted by a dramatic floor-to-ceiling stone, wood-burning fireplace in the living room and by soaring cathedral ceilings with wood beams with thoughtfully placed eyeball lighting for evening ambiance.

The chef's kitchen is both functional and stylish – boasting granite countertops, a large center island with breakfast bar and built-in range, newer cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, a double sink, stone accent wall, and walk-in pantry. The grand open concept allows for cooking, dining, and entertaining for gatherings of any size.

That includes an awesome dining room, where a wood ceiling and cathedral wood ceiling with fan and eyeball lighting create a warm, rustic ambience, while a full wall of windows and double glass doors to the upper level deck illuminate the space with natural light and unbeatable views.

The breathtaking views continue in the Master Suite, where a massive window and double glass sliders open to the second-story deck, as well as plush carpeting, dual closets, and a private ensuite bath with a tub/shower combo.

Two large additional bedrooms – one with a walk-in closet and its own slider to the back deck and patio – offer room for the kids, visiting family, or your personal office space.

A lower-level full bath with a tiled stall shower and oversized vanity, as well as a dedicated laundry room add smart functionality to everyday living.

The attached 2-car garage with 42" side access to the fenced backyard is great for everyday storage, while a separate 4-bay detached garage with 10-ft doors and upper-level storage offers incredible flexibility â€” ideal for car enthusiasts, workshop space, a future office, or potential guest apartment with both interior and exterior stairs.

Recent mechanical upgrades include a newer metal roof, hot water heater, and high-efficiency geothermal heat pumpâ€”bringing peace of mind and long-term savings.
