NONE AVAILABLE, SHIPPENSBURG, PA

Welcome to 99 Fogelsanger Road â€” a one-of-a-kind sanctuary on four serene acres in the heart of Pennsylvaniaâ€™s beautiful Cumberland Valley. Just a short stroll from Shippensburg University, this thoughtfully crafted 4,500-square-foot home is a rare findâ€”designed for families in all stages of life, especially those seeking comfort, independence, and connection under one roof.

This exceptional property was built with true multi-generational living in mind, offering a fully private and accessible addition tailored for loved ones who require extra supportâ€”without sacrificing independence. Whether caring for an aging parent, supporting an adult child with special needs, or simply planning ahead for lifeâ€™s changes, this home offers the flexibility, dignity, and peace of mind youâ€™ve been searching for.

The 2014 addition is a standout feature: a self-contained suite with its own entrance, kitchen, and elevator, connecting the garage level to the main living area. Wide-plank wood floors, 16-foot vaulted ceilings, and large windows create a bright and uplifting space, while a fully accessible bathroom with a roll-in shower, grab bars, and powder room ensures safety and comfort. Ceiling fans, a stacked washer/dryer, and private bedroom complete the suiteâ€”designed for truly independent living within the security of the family setting.

The original home blends classic craftsmanship with modern updates, creating warm, elegant living spaces throughout. The living room showcases quarter-sawn white oak flooring, while the dining room impresses with inlaid hardwood composed of five wood species. A two-sided propane fireplace adds cozy charm to both spaces.

The kitchen is the heart of the home—featuring granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, a central island, and a cozy breakfast nook bathed in morning light. A flexible room on the first floor can serve as an office, media space, exercise room, or additional bedroom. The adjacent primary suite offers privacy and relaxation, with a beautifully updated bath completed in 2022. All first-floor flooring is hard surface—ideal for accessibility and easy upkeep.

Upstairs, three spacious bedrooms provide room to grow, rest, or reimagine—perfect for guests, kids, or hobbies. Natural light and ample storage make these rooms functional and welcoming.

Step outside and discover your own peaceful retreat. The expansive four-acre property offers mature landscaping, woodlands for privacy and shade, a fenced pasture for animals, and gardens that bloom with beauty in every season. The rose garden, with 13 fragrant varieties, is a highlight of spring and summer.

Enjoy morning coffee on the wraparound three-season porch as birdsong and the soft murmur of the pond fill the air. With ceiling fans for summer and propane heaters for cooler months, the porch and adjoining deck let you savor the outdoors in comfort, year-round.

This property is ready for your homestead dreams. A fenced pasture with water and electric, a hay shed, chicken yard, and additional outbuilding support small livestock or hobby farming. Covered parking and a 400-square-foot workshop with ample lighting and power provide space for projects, storage, or equipment.

Location is key—and this home delivers. Just a 3-minute walk to Shippensburg University, you're close to cultural events, lectures, and activities. The scenic Cumberland Valley Rail Trail and Appalachian Trail are just minutes away, offering endless opportunities for recreation and reflection.

99 Fogelsanger Road is more than a house—it's a haven. A place where families can live together with comfort and care, where independence is respected, and connection is nurtured. Whether you're planning for today or preparing for tomorrow, this home adapts with you—beautifully and purposefully.
