Residential on 0.10 Acres

CARLISLE BOROUGH, CARLISLE, PA

Welcome to this charming semi-detached home built in 1891!

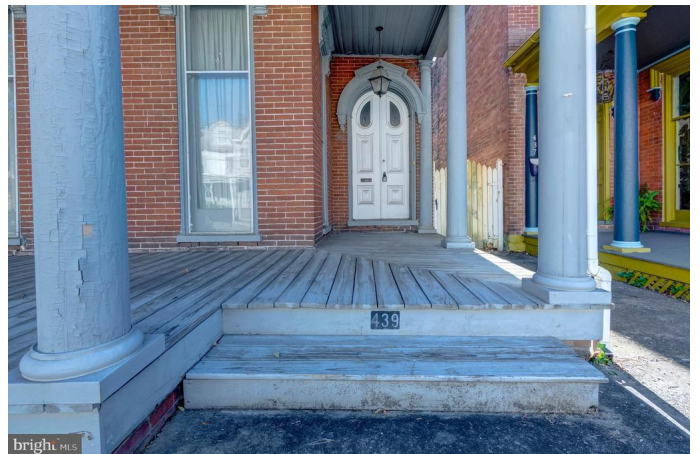

Although it shares only a small portion of wall space with the neighboring property, this residence offers the feel of a single-family home. Full of history and character, it's just waiting for someone to restore it to its former glory. Inside, you'll find stunning wood doors and intricate trim that showcase the craftsmanship of its era.

The seller has already completed several updates to make the home more comfortable, including new kitchen appliances and the addition of central air and heat upstairs, with new ductwork installed in the attic. The main level is equipped with mini-splits for efficient heating and cooling throughout the year.

This home features three bedrooms and two full baths, all within walking distance of downtown Carlisle Borough – close to restaurants, shops, and nightlife. Enjoy the screened-in back porch, and take advantage of the converted carriage house garage, which offers parking for one car plus extra storage space above. There is still room for one more car under the overhang off the garage.

Bring your tools and imagination to restore this historic gem to the masterpiece it once was
