Welcome to 110 N Plum Street, a charming 3-story Lancaster City rowhome that perfectly blends historic character with modern updates. Built in 1880, this home showcases timeless details like original wood floors and an exposed brick wall in the family room, paired with contemporary touches such as a bright updated kitchen with butcher block countertops, stylish finishes, and newer mini-split systems for year-round comfort. Offering 1.5 baths, including a tiled bath surround on the second floor, plus the convenience of first-floor laundry, this home feels both functional and inviting. With its chic aesthetic, natural light, and desirable east side location known for walkability, 110 N Plum is a true city gem.
