A fabulous interior with reclaimed wood produces vaulted spaces that will take your breath away. This exceptional house presents marvelous architectural features at every turn, dramatically combining space, light, and imagination.

The custom design captures the elegant interior one has come to expect in estate quality properties, where exquisite workmanship and detailed execution define each room. The extraordinary great room, enhanced by walls of south-facing windows, has arched king post timber trusses, reclaimed oak ceiling, floor-to-ceiling, two-sided stone fireplace and magnificent custom lighting designed to fit the scale of the soaring spaces.

Here, indoor to outdoor living has been reimagined, with rooms of grand proportions that flow into each other, boasting all the accoutrements that make for ease of living. The state-of-the-art kitchen has only the finest of appliances and custom cabinetry and opens to the sights and sounds of a unique natural setting, with an outdoor kitchen, multiple terraces, courtyard with spa, and fireside seating perfect for hosting significant gatherings with ease.

The primary retreat, with an exquisite bath and dual wardrobe rooms, opens to a secluded terrace overlooking a custom arched footbridge connecting the home to the converted stone barn and large pond. Enticing one to embrace the acreage, there are miles of walking trails, allowing for long hikes without ever leaving the property.

Curated to provide an estate that offers the ultimate in relaxation and rejuvenation, there are multiple venues to explore. Among this is the converted stone barn, offering varied opportunities for extended use. Heated and cooled, with an upper floor of vaulted space, the barn has currently been used as a studio and office, offering a significant nod to its original character. This space is an artistic tableau, inviting all to re-invent a purpose beyond the original. Relax and write and create, overlooking the lake's inspiration and the beauty of all that is Peaceful Valley.
