LOVE = HOME! A simple equation is solved for you at 411 Roberts Avenue in desirable Whitmarsh Township, Colonial School District. This fully renovated single has been awaiting your arrival to show off all the hard work, effort, and love that has been put into it this year along with the prideful family ownership of generations before. This quaint neighborhood/close community is nestled on a dead end block, in walking distance of Leeland Park, and conveniently located to major routes and commercial conveniences. Pulling into the lengthy driveway with ample off-street parking you will be charmed by the architecture of the home and the private shaded rear yard. You enter the home into the expansive front addition and modern living space featuring gorgeous hardwoods, a bright bay window, large walk-in closet, and newly added half bathroom. As you transition into the original section of the home you can see options with the renovated lengthy floor plan with room for dining, sitting area, office nook, or maybe breakfast room. Ample natural light compliments this versatile space boasting new LVP flooring, ceiling fans and breezy tones. Turning the corner you will be captivated by the stunning new kitchen on the rear of the home featuring crisp white cabinetry, all new stainless appliances, and LVP flooring. Allowing options for a small table, maybe modern pantry cabinet, and a custom tile backsplash as way to bring your taste to this fresh kitchen remodel. Upstairs has been recently fully carpeted featuring two larger bedrooms and very sizable full hall bathroom with tub/shower. The main bedroom is expansive with two sections and a large closet.

Both bedrooms feature ceiling fans and capture wonderful natural light from the many windows. The refreshed unfinished walkout basement provides the laundry, Brand New HVAC mechanicals, and is perfect for storage or workshop options. We hope you have the opportunity to solve your HOME = LOVE equation at 411 Roberts Avenue Today.
