WEST PHILADELPHIA, PHILADELPHIA, PA

Enter from the private front porch into a hallway that opens into the dining room, a spacious area with room for a full table. At the front of the home, the living room is framed by two large windows that fill the space with natural light. Toward the back, the dining room flows into the kitchen, which offers plenty of prep space along with room for a small breakfast table. Beyond the kitchen, you'll find the first full bathroom with a shower/tub combo and a doorway leading out to the private backyard. The yard features a concrete patio, large enough for a four-top table or lounge furniture, perfect for outdoor relaxation. Off the kitchen is the entrance to the basement, which runs the full length of the home. This floor houses the washer and dryer and has plenty of extra room for storage. Upstairs, three bedrooms and a second full bathroom complete the home. The rear bedroom includes a countertop and sink, creating a flexible space for an office, hobby room, or nursery. The centrally located bathroom has a double vanity and tub-shower combo. A linen closet in the hallway adds extra storage. The middle bedroom is the smallest of the three, while the front bedroom is the largest, easily accommodating a queen bed with additional furnishings.
