Welcome to 4844 Yorktown Blvd, where modern design meets timeless craftsmanship. Set on a sprawling 0.41-acre lot, this 6-bedroom, 5.5-bath home redefines luxury living with an exquisite fusion of form and function.

Originally built in 1953 but completely reimaged in 2014-2015, this home is practically new, featuring impeccable green-building insulation and custom Weathershield windows. Inside, 5,300 square feet of meticulously designed space unfolds, offering soaring 9'™ ceilings, rich wood flooring, and an effortless flow between living spaces.

At the heart of the home, the large Irish-style kitchen is designed for both cooking and connection. Vast windows offer light from the south, while the space opens seamlessly to a flagstone patio on the east and a deck on the west. Custom black steel accents add a bold touch, while a built-in bar elevates the dining space. The open-concept layout extends to a light-filled living room with custom bookshelves, a striking mantle, and one of two gas fireplaces.

The home features both a main-level and an upper-level primary suite, each with spa-like baths adorned in Patricia Urquiola accent tiles,

Silestone counters, and Italian porcelain. The expansive primary suite boasts a custom wardrobe-style walk-in closet. Upstairs, three additional bedrooms share two beautifully appointed bathrooms, one with a tub and one with an expansive shower. Outdoor living is just as captivating with a large flagstone patio, a separate deck, and beautifully landscaped front and back yards featuring native river oaks, grasses, and succulents. A generous 600 sq. ft. side-loading garage and a wide driveway provide ample parking.
