The owners also added the spacious composite back deck, vinyl fence, backyard walkway, garden containers, window blinds, light fixtures, and a Rheem water softener. A video Ring doorbell and new

Nest thermostat are in place. Ideally situated for commuters, Stonehaven offers a prime location just minutes from historic Warrenton, yet benefits from Culpeper County’s lower tax rates. The area is home to a variety of charming wineries and breweries, and also offers easy access to Culpeper, Little Washington, and Shenandoah National Park. The community includes a 240-acre preservation buffer along the scenic Rappahannock River, and is planned to feature an array of future amenities (see Lennar's Stonehaven page). The home also backs to the tees of a picturesque par-3 hole of the golf course, offering a relaxing view and perfect vantage point.
