$4,395,000

5 Bedroom, 6.00 Bathroom, 7,550 sqft

Residential on 0.63 Acres

FRANKLIN PARK, MCLEAN, VA

In a setting where nature enhances design, 2107 Elliott Avenue stands as Brush Arbor®'s latest home, crafted with intention and grace in collaboration with Wellhouse & Co. Tucked into the desirable enclave of Franklin Park®—known for its winding streets, oversized lots, and privacy—this 0.63-acre setting backs to protected green space, providing an extraordinary sense of seclusion in one of McLean®'s most coveted pockets.

The white and grey paneled faade evokes a charming cottage sensibility, while the home itself is anything but quaint. A curated interior of over 7,550 thoughtfully composed square feet unfolds with five serene bedroom suites, five full baths, two elegant powder rooms, two fireplaces and attached 4-car garage, accessed by a private drive. The architecture is defined by balance and proportion, with intentionally layered finishes, designer-led materiality, and a natural palette that speaks fluently from one space to the next.

Upon entry, herringbone white oak floors welcome you, setting the tone for a home rooted in craftsmanship. The formal dining room®—refined with an arched reeded accent niche®—offers symmetry and rhythm that echo in the family room®'s built-ins with reeded backing. Warmth is introduced through natural materials and custom finishes, bringing together every moment of the home in a quiet, confident harmony.

The kitchen, butler’s pantry, and family room are anchored by textures—wood, stone, and soft-toned plaster—all underscored by thoughtful design. A graceful arched opening into the butler's pantry provides both function and charm. Moments of delight are everywhere: from the symmetry of sightlines to the interplay of material finishes, each curated by Wellhouse & Co to feel distinct yet connected.

Intelligent infrastructure includes rewiring for a future elevator, screened porch with fireplace and expansive ceilings throughout. Oversized windows pour light into every corner, and even with its generous scale, this home retains a sense of intimacy and flow. Outdoors, the rear yard offers a fully private sanctuary with mature trees, green space, and generous room for future customization—gardens, sport court, or whatever life may inspire.

2107 Elliott Avenue is an expression of Brush Arbor’s highest work—designed in collaboration with Wellhouse & Co and featuring cabinetry by Studio 37. This is not a builder-grade new construction home; it is an architectural experience. A lifestyle of intentional luxury awaits—one where no detail is accidental, and every moment is elevated.

This is a home that deserves to be seen—and more importantly, felt.
